

Report on 1975/76 season

The season was closely contested and although Norths had a strong team under Bernie Courtney, they finished in fourth position to miss out on a chance to play in the final. Failure to gain any outright wins was the reason for lack of points on the ladder. Baldwin and Kohn made themselves available for Townsville selection and played in all inter-city matches. Ayr sprung a surprise at the end of the season to defeat Townsville in the final inter-city game. Former Norths player, Max Carlyon, was one of the best for Ayr.
